

DO's for a Successful HOSA State Leadership Conference

DO's for the General Sessions:

- DO show respect for the duration of the session and refrain from any disruptive behavior, especially when others are speaking on stage.
- DO arrive early to all sessions to assure yourself a seat in your region's assigned section.
- DO dress with pride in your official HOSA uniform or suit option (members not following dress code will not be permitted to enter the session).
- DO plan ahead and take care of all personal business prior to the session; members are not permitted to leave during the session.
- DO put your phone on vibrate so you will not disturb anyone around you.

DO's for the Hotel:

- DO keep your voice quiet in the halls as there are other guests in the hotel.
- DO wear appropriate clothes in the hallways, lobbies, and other public areas as you are not at home (see Florida HOSA Dress Code Policy).
- DO arrive early to your room prior to curfew.
- DO let the people exiting the elevator off first prior to entering the elevator.
- DO keep your room tidy and put the used towels in the bathroom so the housekeeping staff may clean your room.

DO's for Your Competition:

- DO attend your orientation.
- DO read the current up-to-date guidelines for your competition.
- DO bring all of the necessary equipment as stated in the guidelines.
- DO find your competition room well ahead of time.

Overall DO's:

- DO follow the member Code of Conduct at all times.
- DO keep your advisor informed of your whereabouts.
- DO plan to attend the Expo and Career Fair and as many member workshops as possible.
- DO get to know your State Officer Team.
- DO have fun and enjoy the conference!
